February 9th, 2009

Dear Members of the New York Chapter of the Copyright Society:

We are excited to invite you to our Inaugural Brown Bag Lunch Talk -- a FREE CLE event on Monday, February 23th, 2009 program, at 12:30 PM, at the office of Fross, Zelnick, Lehrman & Zissu, P.C., 866 UN Plaza at First Avenue & 48th Street, New York, NY 10017.

“TRIPping the light Bilateral—U.S. Israeli Recording Performance Rights”

Please join us for a stimulating talk by visiting Israeli practitioner Neil Wilkof, as he flags pitfalls of bi-lateral copyright agreements in a Berne/TRIPS world. The focus will be public performance of recordings -- specifically as played out under the 1950 Bi-Lateral Copyright Agreement between the U.S. and Israel, TRIPS, and Israel's 2007 Copyright Law. The debate over enactment of that 2007 law, and the resulting legislation, provide a rare window into the interplay between international and bi-lateral copyright obligations. Neil will discuss Berne/TRIPS and the Bi-Lateral Agreement, the characteristics of bi-lateral agreements, the historic debate on whether the Berne Convention protects the public performance right of a foreign manufacturer of a sound recording -- and the political and economic background, both in the U.S. and Israel, concerning the public performance right.

To attend this exciting FREE CLE event, please complete the attached form, and mail or fax it to The Copyright Society of the U.S.A., 352 7th Ave., Suite 739, NY, NY 10001, fax # (212) 354-2847. We look forward to seeing you February 23rd.
